Haba Waba North America Partners with KAP7 International, Inc

DJ Global Wave and Haba Waba North America is proud to announce its partnership with KAP7 International, Inc. The company, which prides itself on designing world class custom water polo products, will collaborate with Haba Waba North America during the much anticipated event in Montreal, July 2017.

"We are very excited that Haba Waba North America will be played with the best water polo balls in the world, product that is already all over the NCAA and Europe. Quality of product already recognized around the globe matches our vision for the quality of Haba Waba and there was no hesitation in making this partnership from both sides." - Dragan Jovanovic, Leader behind the Haba Waba festival and former Olympic coach and leader of the Canadian men's program.

"K7 is proud to partner with Haba Waba North America. Haba Waba's commitment to developing water polo at the youngest levels is in line with our mission to support water polo globally. The new generation demands world class products and we are excited that the athletes and coaches have picked K7 as the leading water polo ball globally." - Bradley Schumacher, CEO/Founder KAP7 International, Inc and Two-time Olympic Gold Medalist www.kap7.com

About Haba Waba North America:

Haba Waba is the only opportunity for 6 to 14 year-old children to participate in a competitive water sport, focusing on play, fun, family and social/educational values. The event takes place from July 5th to 9th, 2017 in Montreal, and is run in partnership with the City of Montreal, Tourism Montreal and Water Polo Quebec. Haba Waba North America is supported by the Olympic Day Program offered by the Canadian Olympic Committee, the Federation Internationale de Natation (FINA) and Jouez Gagnez.

In its third year in North America, Haba Waba North America will bring 500 - 600 athletes aged 6 to 14 from Europe, Asia, United States and Canada to Montreal. Haba Waba International attracts 130 teams or 5,000 participants each year. Inspired by the European water polo movement, Haba Waba North America is already emulating all the qualities of the international event; camaraderie, community and friendly competition.
